

Licensure

Graduation from an approved program of podiatric medicine, one year of residency training, and successful passage of Parts I, II, and III of the licensure examinations.

Residency Training

Graduation from an approved program of podiatric medicine.